QUIZ #2 (GRADED)

- Due Sep 21 at 11:59pm
- Points 20
- Questions 10
- Available Sep 18 at 12am - Sep 21 at 11:59pm
- Time Limit 10 Minutes

Instructions

Answer the following questions as True/False, Fill in the Blank, or Multiple Choice. For the Fill in the Blank questions, make sure to enter the correct spelling.

The quiz will be timed for 10 minutes. Please read and analyze each question carefully before choosing an answer.

This quiz was locked Sep 21 at 11:59pm.

Attempt History

	Attempt	Time	Score
LATEST	Attempt 1	10 minutes	16 out of 20

Score for this quiz: 16 out of 20
Submitted Sep 18 at 1:31pm
This attempt took 10 minutes.

Correct answer

Question 1
2 / 2 pts

Similar to the earlier Chinese, the Japanese immigrants could not effectively appeal to their home government in Japan when confronting racial discrimination in the U.S.

- True
- False

Correct answer

Question 2
2 / 2 pts

Political turbulence caused by the decline of the Qing empire during the 19th century was a major "pull" factor of Chinese immigration to the U.S. west.

- True
- False

Correct answer

Question 3
2 / 2 pts

Modern historians interpret the history of westward expansion as 'civilization' overtaking 'savagery.'

- True
- False

Correct answer

Question 4
2 / 2 pts

Some Chinese workers found themselves employed as factory workers in the industrial cities of the east.

Hint: this is an Erika Lee textbook question

- True
- False

Correct answer

Question 5
2 / 2 pts

This legal term was applied only to Asian immigrants, effectively barring them from U.S. citizenship through naturalization.

Aliens ineligible for citizenship

aliens ineligible for citizenship
'aliens ineligible for citizenship'
"aliens ineligible for citizenship"

Wrong answer

Question 6
0 / 2 pts

This lecture term describes the Asian experience in the 19th century U.S, whereby they were simultaneously needed (for their labor) yet not wanted (due to race).

Indispensable enemy

differential inclusion

Correct answer

Question 7
2 / 2 pts

Similar to European immigrants in the east at the time, the Chinese workers could be best described as voluntary wage laborers planning permanent settlement in the United States.

- True
- False

Correct answer

Question 8
2 / 2 pts

Which among the following statements below does NOT apply to the Chinese experience in the U.S. west during the 19th century?

- a. the Wong Kim Ark case led to all Chinese having citizenship rights
- b. the Chinese were met with hostility during their first arrival to the U.S. west
- c. the Chinese lacked the agency to protest against cases of injustice and oppression
- d. all of the above do not apply to the Chinese in the U.S. west during the 19th century

Correct answer

Question 9
2 / 2 pts

Similar to the earlier Chinese immigrants, the Japanese migrating to the U.S. were disinclined towards cultural assimilation.

- True
- False

Wrong answer

Question 10
0 / 2 pts

This law effectively blocked the loophole of Japanese landowners putting their land deeds in their children's names.

Alien Land Law

Alien Land Act of 1920
Alien Land Act 1920
1920 Alien Land Act

Quiz Score: 16 out of 20